Subd. 1. Purpose. This Section is not intended to interfere with the legitimate business activities of peddlers as the same are defined herein, whether same be local or interstate. These provisions are intended only to, as nearly as possible, ferret out all illegitimate or confidence operators and to regulate and control all those who, in person, would use their unique presence on property within the City of Eden Prairie, or their unique proximity to its residents, for purposes of harassment, nuisance, theft, or other unlawful activities.

Subd. 2. Definitions. When used in this Section, the following terms have the following meanings:

- A. "Peddler" means any person, whether a resident of the City of Eden Prairie or not, who goes from house to house, from place to place, or from street to street, conveying or transporting goods, wares or merchandise or offering or exposing the same for sale, or making sales where payment is received immediately for future delivery to purchasers. It does not include vendors of milk, bakery products or groceries who distribute their products to regular customers on established routes.
- B. "Peddling" means the act of being a peddler.
- C. "Solicitor" means any person, whether a resident of the City of Eden Prairie or not, who goes from house to house, from place to place, or from street to street with the intention of taking immediate orders for services or goods for future delivery and payment. All solicitors dealing with merchandise of any kind to be delivered to customers directly from points outside the State of Minnesota shall be exempt from payment of the license fee.
- D. "Transient merchant" includes any person, firm or corporation, whether as owner, agent, consignee, or employee, whether a resident of the City of Eden Prairie or not, who engages in a temporary business of selling and delivering goods, wares and merchandise within the City, and who, in furtherance of such purpose, hires, leases, uses or occupies any building, structure, motor vehicle, trailer, tent, railroad boxcar, boat, public room in hotels, lodging houses, apartments, shops, or any street, alley or other place within the City, for the exhibition and sale of such goods, wares and merchandise, either privately or at public auction, provided however that such definition does not include any person, firm or corporation who, while occupying such temporary location, does not sell from stock, but exhibits samples for the purpose of securing orders for future delivery only nor shall such definition apply to any person, firm or corporation who sells such goods, wares, or merchandise from within the confines of a lawfully established and operating permanent retail sales operation.

Subd. 3. Permit Required. It is unlawful for any peddler, solicitor or transient merchant to engage in any such business within the City of Eden Prairie without first obtaining a permit therefor in compliance with the provisions of this ordinance.

Subd. 4. Exemptions. The terms of this Section do not include the acts of persons selling personal property at wholesale to dealers in such articles, not to newsboys, nor to the acts of merchants or their employees in delivering goods in the regular course of business, nor to the sale of farm or garden products by the person producing the same at the location where such products are produced, which production shall be proven by the vendor, nor sales of admissions by local school students to a school function. Nothing contained in this Section prohibits any sale required by statute or by order of any court, or prevents any person conducting a bona fide auction sale pursuant to law. Nor shall Subd. 5 apply to solicitations by any organization for philanthropic, religious or educational causes if the following procedure has been accomplished: the requesting entity must file a sworn application in writing on a form to be furnished by the City Clerk which shall give the following information:

Such organization shall furnish all of its members, agents, or representatives conducting solicitation credentials in writing stating the name of the organization, name of agent and purpose of solicitation.
